Leaders Named

Inglewood City Park-Recreation department and the Inglewood City schools announce the appointment of recreation leaders for the Inglewood city playgrounds program resulting from civil service examination given Dec. 8, 1950.

The Inglewood playground program covers nine playgrounds throughout the city, staffed by qualified playground leaders every afternoon Monday through Friday from 2:30 to 5 p.m. and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Interviews were held by Chester Taft, administrative assistant, Inglewood City schools and C. L. Broadwater, sports supervisor, Park-Recreation department. The following probationary appointments have been made: Warren Lane, Dan Arnheim; Oak Street, Bill Cummins; La Tijera, Jeanne Warnock; Bennett, Mary Dirkes; Freeman, Laurence Sprecher; Centinela, Barbara Dirkes; Hudnall, Delores Tate; Kelso, William Jehue; Highland, Hector Apodaca.

Importance of Right
Name on Security
Card Stressed

The Bard of Avon's famous line, "A rose by any other name . . . doesn't apply to your social security card," says George Kretz, manager of the Inglewood Social Security office.

Kretz points out the necessity of having your correct and present name on your social security card. If you're a Miss who's become a Missus, or if you've changed your name for any other reason, you should notify your Social Security office to protect your social security account.

A card bearing your new name will be issued to you. However, you will always retain your original number—it never changes.

This is of importance to a greater number of people now, Kretz stated. Self-employed persons, domestics, and other newly covered groups now under social security for the first time should make certain that their social security card shows their correct name.

If you have changed your name, or have lost your social security card, or are in one of the newly covered groups and never had a card, write or come in to the Inglewood Social Security office. It takes only a few moments to make the adjustment.
